

Richmond, VA June 16th, 2008-River City Hospitality LLC announced today that it will donate a percentage of all 2011 U.S. Open Golf Championship sales to the Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay, a non-profit focused on Chesapeake Bay restoration efforts.

The 2011 U.S. Open will be played at the Congressional Country Club in Bethesda, MD.

“The Chesapeake Bay is a national treasure. Since this will be the 1st U.S. Open to be played in the Chesapeake region since 1997, we felt this would be the perfect opportunity to work with our corporate partners in helping clean up the Bay,” said Stephen Wilson, River City Hospitality President and CEO.

The Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay is a regional nonprofit organization that builds and fosters partnerships to protect and to restore the Bay and its rivers. The Alliance does not lobby or litigate. Instead, we do the slow, hard work of bridging dialogue between groups that don't see eye-to-eye, forming strategies for joint solutions, and building the capacity of communities for local-level action. Founded in 1971, the Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay is funded by individuals, corporations, governments and foundations. The Alliance maintains offices in Baltimore, Maryland; Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; Richmond, Virginia, and Washington. D.C. For more information please visit www.acb-online.org.

River City Hospitality LLC is a premium provider of corporate hospitality services at premier sporting events including the Masters Golf Tournament, the Super Bowl, and the U.S. Open Golf Championship. Our goal is to provide your firm with an environment that is conducive to strengthening your business relationships with customers. As such, our events are “turn-key.” Headquartered in Richmond VA, River City Hospitality is your trusted partner for entertaining key customers and prospects. For more information please visit www.rivercityhosp.com.